Day 6 : My Son - Hoi An

08.00 The tour starts when you meet our English speaking tour guide at your hotel in Hoi An. Today we will drive toward My Son Holy Land the foothills of the mountain spine of Indochina. From here we'll hike into the sacred valley of Vietnam's most spectacular historic and religious site. Dating back to the fourth century, My Son was the holiest site of the Champa kingdom where over a period of 900 years, 68 significant Hindu temples, most dedicated to Shiva, were built. The towers are built of a combination of perfectly fitted, mortar-less, fired brick and elaborately carved sandstone bas-relief panels. Only 25 survived the centuries of pillaging by Chinese and Khmer invaders as well as U.S. bombings.

Leaving My Son and returning to Hoi An. We enjoy lunch at local restaurant in Hoi An.
After lunch time, we will take a boat trip on Thu Bon River which is one of the best ways to idle away an hour or two when in Hoi An, and although you can do it the posh way by jumping aboard a tourist boat, it's far better to go local; and by local I mean grab a sampan.
Around 16:00 Return back to your hotel in Hoi An.

Ancient town and good sales ladies

10 Aug 2019

Love Ancient Town. Love Hou An. Way too much to see. Old Town Market has some pretty serious sales people that are hard to shake but do it with good humour and respect. Tons of great restaurants and cafes. Very cheap shopping and dining. Love it.
